

What went well?

What should we keep doing?
What should we celebrate?
Where did we make progress?

UNLOCKING INSIGHTS INTO THE GLOBAL AIR
TRANSPORTATION NETWORK

What went poorly?

Where did we have problems?
What was frustrating to us or others?
What held us back?

The worldwide network responsible for the mobility of millions of people.

almost 700 million passengers fly each year.

The failures and inefficiencies of the air transportation.

the remaining 4.1 % of the nodes are hubs.

for each city in the world we calculate its community z and participation coefficient p.

the government allotted many funds for this.

the future depends on the air transportation network.

It saves more time and is easy to travel.
